

Dear Friends,

My name is Ernesto Rodriguez. I was born in Lima, Peru. I studied education at Catholic University of Peru. I got a Bachelor Degree in Education in Philosophy and Social Science to teach in High School. I have thirteen years living in the Unites States. I am lucky to receive the American Citizenship. In Florida, I studied in St. John Vianney Seminary and St. Vincent Regional Seminary. But my studies of theology to become a priest, I finished in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. I am a Diocesan Transitional Deacon of the Diocese of St. Thomas of the Virgin Islands. I am in the process of incardination to this Diocese of Youngstown and to be ordained a priest, if it is the will of God. I speak Spanish and I am grateful if you are patient with my English; also, if you help me to improve it. From now, thanks for your welcoming and hospitality in the life of your community of faith at St. Anthony Parish and All Saints Parish.
